May 2018 Bulletin

Patron Jessica Pugh MP with President Michael

President's Report:

Congratulations to our winners of the growing competition. We hope everyone enjoys their new cattleya along with their other four competition growing plants. I have still been trying to get the Affine orchid in readiness for our 50th Anniversary. This may be quite a difficult task. It seems every year it appears to be getting rarer. I am hoping the Northern Territory may be able to supply them for us. It is our goal to have everyone in the society having their own JODOS emblem orchid. More will be said about that as the time comes closer. Thank you to Les Lobley for suggesting it a number of years ago.

Thank you to the people who have taken up the gauntlet again this year. We are still looking for a Vice President for the times when I am not able to come to the meeting. I do occasionally hunt and gather in various places around, especially in the NT. It would be great to know that a person can step in the chair when I am not there.

The committee are looking at getting a banner for outside in the carpark where all the other clubs that meet at the Oxley Bowls Club have theirs hanging. If anyone has any ideas of what could go up there eg: the affine orchid and our title, please let us know.

The show is coming up. The committee have everything organized and looking forward to another great show. We are looking for volunteers to help make it an even better show. Please let any of the committee know if you can help in any way. It will be most appreciated.

Many hands make light work. Setting up on the Friday starts at 12:00 p.m. In particular we will need food for the judges and the workers on Friday and donations of food for sales as well for the kitchen. Thank you to those who have already let the committee know that they are interested in doing a job.

The show schedule is now finished and if anyone needs plant sale tags there are plenty. So start getting plants ready for sales and working out which plants will probably be ready for the show. If you need help on how to prepare them for showing, please ask one of the many "old hands". I'll discuss this further at the next meeting.

Tonight, we have Johnathon Drury and John Halliday from Rocky Point Mulching speaking to us. If you know anyone you think would make a great guest speaker for the meetings please let Sonia or myself know so we can give them plenty of notice. As well we pay each speaker $40 so if you have someone in mind you could also let them know that.

We have two more meetings before the show. It is important that we have as many people as possible to the meetings to say how they will lend a hand.

Thanks

Michael.
